Agenda

13.45 – 14.00 Registration

14.00 – 16.00 Transgender issues in the NHS workplace

We will explain the legislation relating to gender reassignment and its impact on employment and service delivery.

Hill Dickinson's Manchester NHS employment team will be joined by barrister Robin White from Old Square Chambers to provide expert advice and practical guidance on these complex issues.

The training will cover:

The Equality Act 2010

- Relevant rights in relation to gender reassignment
- Impact on employment
- The rights of transgender service users

The Gender Recognition Act 2004

- Additional rights conferred by this legislation
 - The Gender Recognition certificate – what you need to know
 - Impact on employment and service delivery in the NHS

16.00 - 16.30 Transgender issues: A Personal View

Bronwyn Driver from the Workforce Streamlining Northwest will give us a personal insight by telling her story of working in the NHS whilst completing the transition process.

16.30 Refreshments / Close

You are welcome to join us for refreshments and an opportunity to network and catch up with colleagues.
