

HPMA South West Roadshow 2018 – The Future of Work: Collaboration and retention
Wednesday 25 April 2018, Taunton Rugby Club

- 9.30 Opening words from Darran Armitage, HPMA South West Vice-President
- 9.35 Chair’s welcome: Glenys Taylor, Director, Prysm HR
- 9.45 Keynote: Staff retention - How to push water uphill
Alan Long, Executive Director Mears Group
- 10.25 Coffee break & exhibition viewing
- 10.55 Using ESR self-service as staff retention tool
NHS ESR Programme plus South West based NHS trust colleagues
- 11.25 How technology is driving proactive case management within the NHS
Andy Shettle, Product Director, ER Tracker, Selenity
- 11.45 Achieving Gold IIP – how staff made the difference
David Hannath, Director of Development & Consultancy, The Finegreen Group
- 12.05 Digital transformation of the staff bank
Dr Anas Nader, Locum Tap
- 12.25 Lunch & exhibition viewing
- 1.15 About HPMA
Nicky Ingham, Executive Director, HPMA
- 1.25 Social media – building your brand for successful collaboration
Annette Hill, Director of Workforce and OD, Hospicare
- 1.55 Round table discussion – Employee retention
Nicky Ingham, Executive Director, HPMA
- 2.45 Tea & exhibition viewing
- 3.15 Symphony programme – forging trustworthy collaborations
Jeremy Martin, Programme Director for the Symphony Programme, NHS England
- 3.45 Getting the most from professional collaborations
Jeff Evans, Lecturer in Nursing and Midwifery/ Practice Based, University of South Wales &
Jayne Bruner, Practice Education Facilitator, Cym Taf North
- 4.15 Chair’s closing remarks